Job Description:

Full Job Description

FedEx Ground is currently hiring through LNS Deliveries Inc

We are hiring for part-time drivers and full-time drivers

Full-time drivers can be on a set schedule, or a flexible schedule, as we run 7 days a week

Set scheduled drivers need to be available Sunday through Thursday, or Tuesday through Saturday.

Flex scheduled drivers would need to be available one weekend day (fluctuating) and four week days (fluctuating) and get paid a little different.

We have part-time positions available, anywhere from one day a week to four days a week – whatever works for you – but would need to include one weekend day.

Anyone willing to work two weekend days (part-time or full-time), would receive higher compensation.

Starting pay is $180 a day salary, plus bonuses, when applicable.

Expectations and job requirements

For the daily salary, you will be expected to put in a nine-hour day. The days usually start around 8:00 and usually ends between 3:00 and 5:00. Some days you will get off earlier, but it is expected that you be available until 5:00. There are bonuses for days longer than 9 hours, which happens on occasion.

Must be a team player – that means if you get done early, and someone else needs help, we expect you to be willing to help when asked at least until 5:00, as needed (5:00 means we want people back at the hub at 5:00, on their way home). Anything longer will include a bonus. You will not be asked to do this often, and sometimes someone will come and help you, when needed.

To be considered for the position, you must be at least 21 years old, able to pass a DOT Physical, pass a drug test, and have a relatively clean driving record, as well as pass a background check.

This job includes a health pay back program, PTO (after a year) and Holiday pay (after a year).

NOTES - This job is a physical job and an independent job. As well as driving, you'll be lifting packages throughout the day (sometimes heavy). You will have full training, but have relative independence throughout much of your day.

PROVIDED BY COMPANY - Vehicle, Gas, Uniform, All Equipment Needed To Perform Your Job

Pay: From $180.00 per day

Benefits:

Health insurance

Paid time off

Referral program

Schedule:

8 hour shift

Overtime

Self-determined schedule

Weekend availability

Supplemental pay types:

Bonus pay

Safety bonus
