What Should I Expect?

This event will feature multiple hiring components. Provided you pass each component, your day could consist of:

- Attending an information session to learn more about the TSO position and employment with TSA;
- Applying for the TSO position, if you did not apply online prior to the event;
- Taking a proctored computer-based test;
- Participating in a structured interview to assess qualifications for the position;
- Completing a medical evaluation, federal drug screening and pre-hire background investigation soon after the event.

Minimum Qualifications

- 18 years or older.
- U.S. citizen or national.
- High school diploma, GED or security experience equivalent.
- Registered for Selective Service.

No previous security experience required.

Tips For The Event

1. Bring two forms of valid federal or state government-issued identification. At least one form of identification with a photograph and a signature is required.
2. Please note that a resume and previous work experience are not required for your USAJOBS profile or the TSA application.
3. Please bring your smartphone and/or passwords to access your email and USAJOBS account.
4. Consider arriving early to allow more time to complete all components.
5. If you don't feel well, please do not attend.
